Research Activities

(complete this section only if the study involves primary research involving Toronto Community Housing staff or tenants; if the study involves only secondary research using Toronto Community Housing data, please skip this section)

Indicate the category and number of participants you plan to recruit:

Participant Category	Approximate Number
Head Office/Program Staff	_____
Frontline Staff (building/community staff)	_____
Tenants	_____
Other (specify): _____	_____

Our staff and tenants are diverse and may include potentially vulnerable groups (e.g., minors, seniors, those facing mental health challenges, etc.). Do you have protocols in place for interacting with potentially vulnerable subjects? Explain.

Please note: TCHC has protocols in place for research involving TCHC staff or tenants, or taking place on TCHC property; should a researcher's protocols be insufficient for the proposed research activities, they will be supplemented by TCHC to ensure the protection of staff and/or tenants.

Briefly describe the participant recruiting protocol you will use:

Please note: The recruitment of participants must abide by TCHC's Conflict of Interest in External Research and Data Use policy.

Has your institution approved this study with respect to research ethics?

Yes No Under Review Will Submit N/A

Does your study involve incentives for participants? Yes No

If yes, please explain:

Please note: The use of incentives must abide by TCHC's Conflict of Interest in External Research and Data Use policy.

Please attach the following documentation to support our assessment of your application:

- Research Ethics Board decision documentation
- Project proposal or outline
- Information and consent documents for participants
- Risk mitigation plan for interacting with any applicable vulnerable populations
- Data collection tools

If any of these documents are missing from your application, please give a rationale (are they not applicable to the study, under development, etc.,)

Toronto Community Housing has a responsibility to protect its staff and tenants in the conduction of research involving them, and their information. We ask that all researchers agree to share their proposed ethical protocols with Toronto Community Housing, and ensure that they are in line with those outlined by the corporation.

I agree to abide by industry standard ethical practices in the conduction of primary research involving Toronto Community Housing tenants and/or staff.

Disclaimer and Signature

I understand that permission must be obtained from Toronto Community Housing before commencing any part of this research, or gaining access to any requested data involving the organization.

I will immediately inform Toronto Community Housing of any changes to topic, or research design of this study.

I will report any unanticipated issues that arise regarding potential risks to participants, their data, or assets immediately to Toronto Community Housing, including the loss or unauthorized disclosure of data.

I will send a copy of the formal research findings (e.g., report, presentation, film, etc.) to Toronto Community Housing upon completion. In any publication based on this study, I will acknowledge Toronto Community Housing for its co-operation or contribution, and will notify the corporation at least one month in advance of publication.
