Check your building's tax exempt status

It's tax time. Make sure you check your building's tax exempt status—it's important!

Why is my building's tax exempt status important?

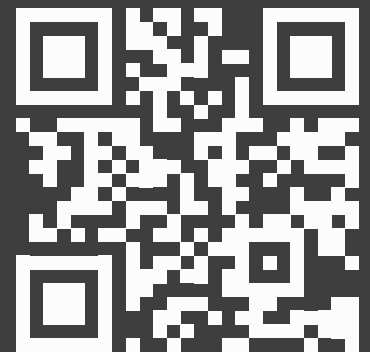

TCHC does not pay municipal education and property tax on most of its buildings. Tenants in tax exempt buildings can't claim the property tax portion of the Ontario Trillium Benefit.

How do I check my building's status?

To get more information about your building's property tax status, go to torontohousing.ca/taxexempt or scan the QR code below with your mobile device.

The Ontario Trillium Benefit is a provincial program administered by the Canada Revenue Agency. For questions about this benefit, please visit the Canada Revenue Agency website.

For questions about your building, speak to your Tenant Services Coordinator.
